

Hi I am currently participating in the Indiana No Call list and I think it has stopped many unwanted business or sales calls. I would like to keep it the way it is currently. I think that the only reason that the CBA wants to amend this law is to completely undermine its intent. Please consider keeping this law intact.

Thank You
Billy Hood